DIAGNOCURE INC.
(« The Company »)

"WHISTLE BLOWING" POLICY

DiagnoCure (including its subsidiaries) wishes to facilitate the disclosure, by any interested party, of any preoccupations with regard to the Company's ethics or governance in order that disclosed activities or situations may be known and examined by the Company's Management as soon as possible.

Disclosed situations may be related to accounting, internal accounting controls, auditing, as well as any aspect of management that may have a material effect on the Company's activities.

The interested party who wishes to disclose a situation may communicate with the Chairperson of the Audit and Risk Management Committee of DiagnoCure's Board of Directors by using one of the following means, under confidential cover:

Chairperson of the Audit and Risk Management Committee: Mr. Alain G. Michel

- By e-mail: communications@diagnocure.com
- By mail: 2050 René-Lévesque Blvd W., 6th Floor
QUÉBEC (Qc) G1V 2K8

The submitted disclosures shall be detailed as much as possible to provide sufficient information about the situation and allow the Company to carry out a pertinent investigation.

The Chairperson of the Audit and Risk Management Committee will conduct a first review of the disclosures received and will report to the Board on all investigations that must be carried out or on any other actions deemed necessary in order to correct any irregular or harmful situations for the Company.
